193 BRATENAHLE ROAD
CLEVELAND, OHIO 44108

To Father Aloysius F. Dombrowski, pastor,
Fathers John S. Deka and Frank P. Kucia, assistants,
The Sisters of St. Joseph of the Third Order of St. Francis and the lay Teachers and the Parishioners of Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish:

We join with all of you in observing this 75th Anniversary of the establishing of Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish.

Our first thought must be one of thanksgiving to Almighty God for all the graces and blessings of these years. These favors are known and unknown, seen and unseen, material and spiritual. They have come through the offering of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and the administering of the sacraments, together with the prayerful devotion expressed in the hearts and lives of clergy, religious and laity of Immaculate Heart Parish.

In all the joyful exuberance of this Diamond Jubilee, we are prayerfully mindful of all who have worshipped and prayed in our parish church. We owe this debt of remembrance to those who have been responsible for the founding and growth of our parish.
Today, on this 75th anniversary, we are the grateful beneficiaries of their unselfish labors and sacrifices for the development of Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish in our midst.

In these our days, we add our share to the living Faith and loyal dedication to God's law and grace, so that the daily example of Immaculate Heart of Mary parishioners may continue to shine brightly as a beacon, beckoning to others to come to know, love and serve God,
and thereby win the reward of eternal happiness for their souls.

These continued and ever-increasing graces we ask God to bestow in His bounty in the years ahead upon all who count themselves the particular proteges of Mary, our Blessed Mother, in the imitation of her pure heart and the practice of her virtues.

With my blessing, I am

Bishop of Cleveland

JOHN CARDINAL KROL
ARCHBISHOP OF PHILADELPHIA

Reverend Aloysius F. Dombrowski
Immaculate Heart of Mary Church
Cleveland, Ohio

Reverend and dear Father Dombrowski:

May I unite with you, the devoted clergy, religious and laity of the Parish of the Immaculate Heart of Mary in a prayerful thanksgiving to God for the many blessings granted to and through the parish during the seventy-five years of its existence.

I treasure the bonds and cherish the memories which link me with the parish. My own sister, Sister M. Olga, prior to her final illness and death, taught in the Immaculate Heart of Mary School. The funeral services for her, as also for my mother, were held in the Immaculate Heart of Mary Church. My first and formal assignment as curate was to the Immaculate Heart Parish, where I served with joy under that saintly pastor, Monsignor Mlotkowski.

For these and for many other reasons, I extend congratulations to all in the parish, and I beg God to continue His rich blessings upon all. As a pledge of my prayerful best wishes, I impart my own pastoral blessing in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Devotedly in Christ,

John Cardinal Koel

HISTORY OF IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY PARISH

"The Spirit of God moved over the earth . . . The Parish . . . and God saw that it was good."
(Gen. 1, 2 & 10.)

Beginnings are usually difficult; some more so than others. The seed must die first in order to germinate and "bring fruit in abundance."

The history of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish is no exception to the rule; it proves the rule. The Baptismal Register records the first Baptism on May 15, 1894. Since no records of the existence of the Parish are filed in the Diocesan archives before 1909, we may safely proceed to set the date of the founding of the Parish within the early months of 1894. Therefore, 1969 brings us to the celebration of a Diamond Jubilee. The unique beginning of this Parish should make all of us who shared in its fruits justly proud.

The founder of the Parish was the Rev. Anton F. Kolaszewski. History now shows that Father Kolaszewski was a gigantic figure in the history of the Diocese of Cleveland and certainly in the history of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish.

The very fact that he chose the Immaculate Heart of Mary as the patroness of the new parish in the southeast section of Cleveland is indicative of his magnanimous and prophetic vision. Calumniated, slandered, humiliated, rejected and eventually ostracized—he returned to the Diocese of Cleveland in spite of bureaucratic expulsion. He was truly a Priest of God; dedicated to his God, his Church, his Religion and "his People." His people demanded his return. And return he did; not arrogant, not vindictive, not presumptuously insubordinate, but obedient to the dictates of his conscience, his priestly calling and seriously cognitive of the fact that he was called by God to serve His/his People. Pope John XXIII called Vatican II a Pastoral Council. Father Kolaszewski ante-dated the Second Vatican by more than half a century; he was a pastoral leader.

The beginning of the parish, although not under Episcopal jurisdiction, was not schismatic, neither was it affiliated with the Polish National Catholic Church as we know it today. There was a time when this charge was made. It was simply independent. Father Kolaszewski did not deviate from the teaching of Rome. He was a scholarly priest who held fast to the teaching of Holy Mother Church, to the administration of the Sacraments and the fostering of a genuine love for Polish tradition and heritage in the new setting of American freedom and pluralism. During his pastorate a church and a rectory were built. The corner stone dates the building of this rectory in 1895. But the parish really began when Mass was first offered, probably in private homes. The dynamics of this liturgy, as history has always shown, leads to the building of a central place of worship. In the case of our parish, this resulted in the building of the first church, a frame, New England style building, dedicated to Mary's Immaculate Heart.

While he was working so untiringly to organize the new parish, Father Kolaszewski's priestly worth and vision were insufficiently appreciated. This did not deter him from his priestly calling and objective. To recognize how deeply he was hurt by this uncharitable attitude towards him, we need but read excerpts from his letter written to the Bishop in self defense. The letter was dated November 4, 1890.

"I am working for four priests and not for one. I have more people to take care of than the Pastor of the Cathedral and I am for the greater part alone. I found nothing when I came to my parish. Now I have built two most beautiful churches; one the grandest, the most beautiful in the Diocese (St. Stanislaus) schools and house; procured church property and that with the poorest class of people in the Diocese. My time is occupied with the duties toward my good people. With everything they will come to me. I am their advisor, contractor, lawyer, doctor, father, friend, brother and very often their judge. I work at this 18 hours day after day. I am never at rest. What else do you want of me? Do I not work enough?"

Certainly such an outpouring of a tortured soul should be testimony to the character and the mind of a dedicated man of God.

When the Most Rev. John P. Farrelly became the fourth Ordinary of the Diocese of Cleveland, the Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish appeared on the roster of the then existing parishes. Reinstated into the graces of Holy Mother Church, Father Anton F. Kolaszewski died December 2, 1910. His mortal remains lie today buried with his fellow-priests of the Diocese in Calvary Cemetery. (Section 9)

Then followed a rapid succession of Pastors: The Reverends Methodius Kielar, O.F.M., A. Migdalski, J. Darowski and B. Walter.

The Rev. Marion J. Orzechowski was appointed Pastor in February of 1912. Father M. J. Orzechowski was named Domestic Prelate in June of 1926. During his pastorate the present church was built in 1914 and the school in 1924. Monsignor M. J. Orzechowski was transferred to the pastorate of St. John Cantius Parish in 1932 and died there on the 1st day of May, 1939.

Father John K. Mlotkowski was appointed Pastor to succeed Monsignor M. J. Orzechowski in May of 1932. Father J. K. Mlotkowski was named Domestic Prelate on the 17th of February, 1940. During his pastorate the rectory was remodeled; the school basement was enlarged to provide additional meeting space for the societies and in 1954 a new Sisters' Convent was built. Monsignor John K. Mlotkowski died March 22nd, 1960, after a lingering illness of three and a half years.

In retrospect, we can see the great patriotic genius of Monsignor Orzechowski and of Monsignor Mlotkowski. Each shouldered the burden of leadership of the parish under trying circumstances. Monsignor Orzechowski inspired his people to face the loss of sons and husbands during the First World War. Monsignor Mlotkowski carried the burden of keeping the parish solvent during the Great Depression and of carrying a torch of hope for the safe return of the service men in the Second World War. No single historic event affected our times as World War II. Every young man and woman in the services appreciated the slightest effort (on the part of those at home) to inform them of their friends and acquaintances. Father Edward F. Gackowski and his staff of young ladies mailed a newsy letter to everyone in the service, once a month, informing them of what was "doing at the parish." But, in short, it proved that "the parish cared."

The priests who have served the parish as assistants have given truly dedicated priestly years. Past Associate Pastors: Rev. M. Pawlowski, Rev. Joseph Sztucki *, Rev. Joseph Jarosz, Rev. Leo Sztupek (Absent on leave), Rev. John Bialek *, Rev. John Grabowski *, Rev. Joseph Napierkowski *, Rev. Thaddeus Heruday, Rev. Joseph Zabawa *, Rev. Edwin Osowski *, Rev. John Krol, Rev. # HISTORY OF IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY PARISH

The Second Vatican tells us that a Parish exists as a community for a number of reasons and as long as these reasons for its existence continue, the Parish needs to exist. The Parish is: a worshipping community giving glory to God. . . passing on the torch of Faith, "brightly burning for the generations that it produces" . . . sending its members out as the leaven of Christ's witnesses in the community, city and Diocese . . . supplying recreational facilities and a spirit of Christian comradeship; a sustaining power for the aid of the poor, the sick, the deprived in our country and abroad and in our Parish especially so in Poland. All of these requisites that Second Vatican sets forth as necessary for the continued existence of a Parish . . . Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish did under able leadership and, by the grace of God, intends to do.

Just one more quote from the letter of Father Anton F. Kolaszewski, dated November 4, 1890: "I have up to this time fulfilled all my duties most conscientiously. I am fulfilling them as long as I live." A fine inspiration for the incumbent and, God grant, a fulfillment.

Presently the Priests serving the Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish are: Rev. Aloysius F. Dombrowski, Pastor; Rev. John S. Deka, Assistant Pastor; Rev. Frank P. Kucia, Assistant Pastor.

"The Spirit of God moved over the earth . . . the Parish . . . and God saw that it was good."
(Gen. 1:2 & 10)

"Now, Master, you can let your servant go in peace, just as you promised; because my eyes have seen the salvation which you have prepared for all the nations to see, a light to enlighten the pagans and the glory of your people." (Luke 2, 29)

Honor and glory, praise and benediction to the Most Holy Trinity through the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

HISTORIA PARAFII NIEPOKALANEGO SERCA N.M.P.

"A Duch Boży unosił się nad wodami . . . nad Parafią . . . i widział Bóg, że było dobre . . .
(Rodzaju 1, 2:10)

Początek Parafii Niepokalanego Serca N.M.P. sięga historycznie do roku 1894. Pierwszy zapis Chrztu św. został dokonany w dniu 15-tym maja 1894 r. Chociaż do roku 1909 Parafia Niepokalanego Serca N.M.P. nie znajduje się w archiwach diecezjalnych, to jednak opierając się na urzędowych księgach parafialnych śmiało podać można pierwsze miesiące roku 1894 jako początkowe istnienia tej parafii.

Założycielem Parafii był Ks. Antoni F. Kołaszewski. Pierwszy Proboszcz—to postać prawdziwego kapłana i polaka. Już sam fakt obrania przez niego na Patronkę nowo powstającej parafii na południowo-wschodniej stronie miasta Cleveland — Niepokalanego Serca Najświętszej Maryi Panny — świadczy o jego wielkodusznym i proroczym darze przewidywania. Historia najlepiej wykazuje że Ks. A. F. Kołaszewski był olbrzymem w dziejach życia diecezji Clevelandzkiej, a niezaprzeczalnie w początkach życia Parafii Niepokalanego Serca N.M.P.

Spotwarzony, zelżony i niemilosiernie upakarzany, a nawet wydalony z diecezji . . . nie załamał się i wbrew biurokratycznemu wydaleni wrócił do służby diecezji. On był prawdziwie kapłanem Bożym; całodusznie oddany Bogu, Matce Kościołowi, Religii i "jego ludowi." To lud właśnie domagał się jego powrotu. Wrócił do swego ludu, nie zarozumiały, nie obrażony, nie pyszny ale posłuszny głosowi swego sumienia i powołania kapłańskiego z przekonaniem że Bóg go powołał do Swojej służby nad ludem jego pieczy powierzonym.

Papież Jan XXIII nazwał Sobór Watykański—Soborem Duszpasterskim. Ks. A. F. Kołaszewski wyprzedził ideę Soboru o przeszło pół wieku. On był prawdziwie duszpasterzem, kapłanem, wodzem — proboszczem. Chociaż początkowo parafia nie podlegała jurysdykcji Biskupa, ale nie można zarzucać że uległa afiliacji Kościoła Polsko-Narodowego według dzisiejszego znaczenia i pojęcia. Ks. Kołaszewski trzymał się zawsze i nauczał zasad i nauki Prawdziwego Kościoła Chrystusowego. Sam ukochawszy, innych nauczał, jak należy kochać i piastować religijno-narodowe zwyczaje polskie.

W okresie jego trudnego pasterzowania wybudowano kościół i plebanie. Kamień węgielny wskazuje datę budowy plebanii na rok 1895. Religijny początek parafii zapisuje się też uroczystym zaofiarowaniem pierwszej Mszy św., którą złożono prawdopodobnie w prywatnym domu. Religijność ludzi i działalność Ks. Kołaszewskiego doprowadziła do szybkiej budowy centrum nabożeństw. Na początku postawiono skromny, drewniany kościółek oddając go pod opiekę Niepokalanego Serca N.M.P. Mimo bezinteresownego oddania samego siebie i całej swej energii przy organizowaniu parafii trudności narastały i stawały się coraz bardziej dokuczliwsze.

Aby poznać jak głęboko był zraniony wystarczy przeczytać wyjątek jako listu datowanego 4-go listopada, 1890 r. Wyjątek tego listu podaję w streszczeniu i w tłumaczeniu dosłownym z języka angielskiego. List składa się z 17 paragrafów a czyta się jak Lamentacje Jeremiasza albo każdemu polskiemu sercu drogie Gorzkie żale.

Cytuję paragraf jedenasty:

"Ja pracuję w miejsce i za czterech księży; nie za jednego. Ja obsługuję więcej parafian niż proboszcz w katedrze diecezjalnej a po większej części jestem sam. Tu nic nie było kiedy ja przybyłem do parafii. Dotychczas wystawiłem dwa kościoły, jeden wspaniały, najwspanialszy w całej diecezji (Św. Stanisława) szkoły i plebanie; nabyłem grunta parafialne i to z ofiar najuboższych ludzi w całej diecezji. Poświęcam czas służąc ludowi mi powierzonymu. Biedacy — z każdą troską przychodzą do mnie. Ja im jestem doradcą we wszelkich sprawach codziennych, kontraktorem, adwokatem, doktorem, ojcem, bratem, przyjacielem a w niejednym wypadku nawet sędzią; ze wszystkimi sprawami przychodzą do mnie. Ja pracuję 18 godzin dziennie. Ja nie znam odpoczynku. Powiedz mi, Drogi Biskupie, czego jeszcze domagasz się ode mnie? Czy ja nie dosyć pracuję?

Przeczytaj ten urywek listu jeszcze raz — niech wsiąknie w twoją pamięć. To są słowa które świadczą o charakterze i duszy bezwarunkowo oddanej Bogu. "Błogosławieni, którzy cierpią prześladowanie dla sprawiedliwości, albowiem ich jest Królestwo Niebieskie."

Wreszcie, kiedy rządy diecezjalne objął Ksiądz Biskup Jan P. Farrelly (1909-1921) jako czwarty z kolei Ordynariusz Diecezji Cleveland, Parafia Niepokalanego Serca N.M.P. znalazła się na liście natenczas istniejących parafij Diecezji Cleveland. Pojednany z Matką Kościołem i władzą, Ks. Antoni F. Kołaszewski umarł w Panu 2-go grudnia 1910 r. Jego zwłoki spoczywają w błogim pokoju obok księży naszej diecezji na diecezjalnym cmentarzu Kalwaryi. (Sec. 9)

Po zgonie Ks. A. F. Kołaszewskiego następowały szybkie zmiany Proboszczów: Ks. Metody Kielar, O.F.M., Ks. A. Migdalski, Ks. J. Darowski, Ks. B. Walter. O ich działalności historia nieomal milczy.

W lutym 1912 r. rządy parafii objął Ks. Marian J. Orzechowski. Podczas jego probostwa wystawiono obecny kościół w roku 1914 a w roku 1924 szkołę parafialną. W dowód uznania jego pracy, nadano mu w czerwcu 1926 roku godność Prałata. Przeniesiony na probostwo parafii Św. Jana Kantego w roku 1932 tam umarł 1-go maja 1939 r.

Następnym proboszczem był Ks. Jan K. Młotkowski (1932-1960), również wywyższony do godności Prałata 17-go lutego 1940 r. Ks. Młotkowski pracował z wielkim oddaniem i poświęceniem nad rozwojem dusz jego pieczy powierzonych. Za jego rządów parafią odnowiono plebanie i przy dużej pomocy członków Tow. Imienia Jezusa wykopano miejsce pod szkołą dostarczając tym samym więcej miejsca na posiedzenia towarzystw parafialnych. W roku 1954 wybudowano nowy dom Sióstr. Po ponad trzy i pół lat trwającej chorobie Ks. Prałat Jan K. Młotkowski umarł 22 marca 1960 r.

Spoglądając wstecz jesteśmy pełni uznania i podziwu dla tych dwóch mężów Bożych. Obydwaj dźwigali brzemie prowadzenia parafii w bardzo trudnych czasach wojen. Ks. Prałat Marian J. Orzechowski wpajał ducha poświęcenia i ofiary nawet z życia synów i mężów walczących na frontach pierwszej wojny światowej. Ks. Prałat Jan K. Młotkowski tak mądrze pokierował finansami parafii podczas lat depresji, że mimo trudności finansowych wyprowadził parafię ze wszystkich długów. Podczas drugiej wojny światowej pocieszał parafian nadzieją szczęśliwego doczekania powrotu synów i mężów. Każdy młodzieniec i panna w służbie wojennej odczuwali tęsknotę za domem rodzinnym jak i za wszystkimi wiadomościami o najbliższych. Ks. Edward F. Gackowski wraz z grupą ochotnych dziewcząt systematycznie wysyłał listy do każdego parafianina znajdującego się na wojnie z utęsknionymi wiadomościami o najbliższych i o dziełach w parafii. Tym udowadniałi że "parafia troszczyła się o nich."

Wszyscy księża, proboszczowie i wikarzy, pracujący przy tej parafii swoją rzetelną i sumienną pracą przyczyniali się do rozwoju ducha prawdziwej religijności, zostawiając po sobie żywy pomnik owocnej pracy kapłańskiej. Biorąc przykład z pracy swoich duszpasterzy, wielu z młodzieży naszych parafian garnie się do stanu duchownego. Piętnastu wychowanków parafii przyjęło święcenia kapłańskie.

Po trzech i pół latach pracy w charakterze administratora (1957-1960) w okresie choroby Ks. Prałata Jana K. Młotkowskiego, 13-go czerwca, 1960 r. proboszczem został mianowany Ks. Alojzy F. Dombrowski. Jako administrator Ks. A. F. Dombrowski zrealizował projekt malowania kościoła o temacie Tajemnic Różańca św. i Dziewięciu Chórów Anielskich. Przy tej okazji całkowicie przerobiono sanktuarium. Jako proboszcz dał nałożyć nowy dach na kościół w roku 1960 a w 1962 zainstalował nowe organy; zaprowadzono porządek na parafialnym omentarzu i wybudowano nową plebanie w roku 1964. Idąc w duchu zmian liturgicznych następujących po Soborze Watykańskim, zaofiarował nowy ołtarz przy którym Msze św. odprawia się twarzą do ludzi. Ołtarz ten jest ku ś.p. jego rodziców, Antoniego i Franciszki (Grucza) Dombrowskich. Ostatnio wybudował w sanktuarium z marmuru podwyższenie, aby wierni mogli lepiej widzieć i przez to lepiej uczestniczyć w Ofierze Mszy św. i w nabożeństwach.

Na koniec jeszcze jeden wyjątek z listu ś.p. Ks. A. F. Kołaszewskiego, "Aż do tej chwili wypełniałem swoje kapłańskie obowiązki jak najsumienniej. Ja je wypełniam i wypełniać będę do końca mego życia."

Ta przepiękna myśl przyświeca i przyświecać będzie obecnemu Proboszczowi w jego pracy duszpasterskiej.

Obecni Księża pracujący przy parafii. Ks. Alojzy F. Dombrowski, Proboszcz, Ks. Jan S. Deka, Wikary, Ks. Franciszek P. Kucia, Wikary.

"Teraz, Panie, możesz puścić Twego sługę w pokój, według słowa Twego. Gdyż oczy moje widziały Twoje zbawienie, które przygotowałeś wobec wszystkich narodów: światło na oświecenie pogan i chwałę ludu Twego." (Łukasz 2,29)

Reliving a Busy Day in Life at

Immaculate Heart of Mary School

The Plain Dealer

St. Joseph

FROM/1-A

Peggy Czarnitzki knelt in her pew, her hands clasped in prayer, tears streaming down her face. "I've been a member of this church for 37 years, since I was a little girl," she said. "This is not just a church. It's a family. I'm fighting to save it. This is a sin."

Like many at the service, she wore a sticker identifying her as a friend of St. Joseph's. She said the organization has set up a trust fund, is contacting former parishioners and trying to raise money to get the church operating again. Historical societies also are being called. The Gothic structure, with its carved wooden altar, two side shrines and stained glass windows, was placed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1976.

"That's just the material values," Czarnitzki said. "The important value is the people in the church. People who have come before us. Now, there will be none coming and that's the sad part."

Those who came yesterday brought memories, some rich in family history. Don Rozick, 40, drove from his home in Woodville, O., near Toledo, to attend yesterday's services. "My dad was born and raised in this neighborhood," he said. "This whole area has ties with my family. This is a beautiful church." He remembered the fish fries at the parish house when eating meat on Friday was banned by the Catholic Church. He talked about the other churches that once stood nearby but are now just memories. "Now there's a good chance before all is over and done with they're going to run a bulldozer over this one."

Lee Flama, 58, of Garfield Heights, went to grade school in the parish, made her first communion and confirmation in the church and attended yesterday's Mass. "I don't think they should tear it down," she said, fighting back tears. "I think everybody should get together and keep the church open. It's such a beautiful church."

An overflow crowd of worshipers attends the final Mass at St. Joseph Catholic Church. The number of regular parishioners has dwindled, prompting the Cleveland Catholic Diocese to close the church at E. 23rd St. and Woodland Ave.

By JOHN F. HAGAN
STAFF WRITER

St. Joseph Catholic Church was rich in ceremony yesterday at the 10 a.m. Mass. Celebrants wore bright red vestments; the church was aglow in light from candles flickering on the altar and from the bulbs that lined the ornate structure.

This joyous setting was the occasion of the church's saddest moment. Its doors closed yesterday and may never reopen.

The church has fallen victim to a dwindling congregation and a shortage of funds. The morning Mass yesterday may be the last celebrated in the 115-year-old church at 2543 E. 23rd St., near Woodland Ave. About 1,000 people crammed into pews, sat on folding chairs and stood to be part of the event.

It was the last Mass at the keyboard for Marcella Basel, 78. She has played the organ at the church for 44 years

'I've been a member of this church for 37 years, since I was a little girl. This is not just a church. It's a family. I'm fighting to save it. This is a sin.'

and her predecessor was the church's organist for 58 years.

"It's been part of my life," she said. "I've come down here since I was a kid. I certainly will miss it."

Some members of the congregation stopped by the dusty organ, an upright standing on the right aisle of the church, and had their picture taken with "Mrs. Basel."

"I came here in 1943 and have been here ever since," she said. "Believe me, it's a sad situation when you look at this beautiful church and to think it's just going to stand here."

It may be worse. While the Cleveland Catholic Diocese has postponed demolishing the church until Sept. 8, 1987, the diocese is firm in its decision to close the church.

Basel said she remembered when there were three other Catholic churches close by St. Joseph's. "Ours is the last," she said. "All our parishioners moved out, and once they move out, they don't move back. When I started here, we had people and it was lovely." The congregation has declined to fewer than 200, according to diocesan officials.

Bishop Anthony M. Pilla participated in the closing liturgy and thanked the parishioners for their commitment to the church, adding that he looked forward to further discussions with them about finding ways to keep the church open. He implored them to understand the decision to disband the parish. "Yes, this is a beautiful church," he told them after the Mass. "But remember what St. Paul said, 'You are the church. Nothing can compare to the beauty in one Christian's soul.'"

As the service ended and Pilla and a procession of clergymen left the church, many in the congregation began to cry. Others went to the altar to have pictures taken with friends or with the Franciscan friars who administer the church. People shook hands, hugged and reminisced.
